| CONTENT AREA / STANDARD       | NJ.SS.6.1.8. | U.S. History: America in the World: All students will acquire the knowledge and skills to think analytically about how past and present interactions of people, cultures, and the environment shape the American heritage. Such knowledge and skills enable students to make informed decisions that reflect fundamental rights and core democratic values as productive citizens in local, national, and global communities.   |
| STRAND                        | 6.1.8.A.     | Civics, Government, and Human Rights  |
| CONTENT STATEMENT             | 6.1.8.A.3.   | Revolution and the New Nation (1754-1820s) - Disputes over political authority and economic issues contributed to a movement for independence in the colonies. The fundamental principles of the United States Constitution serve as the foundation of the United States government today.  |
| CUMULATIVE PROGRESS INDICATOR | 6.1.8.A.3.b. | Evaluate the effectiveness of the fundamental principles of the Constitution (i.e., consent of the governed, rule of law, federalism, limited government, separation of powers, checks and balances, and individual rights) in establishing a federal government that allows for growth and change over time.Social Studies OnlineWashington, DC - Grades 6 - 8   |
| CONTENT AREA / STANDARD       | NJ.SS.6.2.8. | World History/Global Studies: All students will acquire the knowledge and skills to think analytically and systematically about how past interactions of people, cultures, and the environment affect issues across time and cultures. Such knowledge and skills enable students to make informed decisions as socially and ethically responsible world citizens in the 21st century.   |
| STRAND                        | 6.2.8.A.     | Civics, Government, and Human Rights  |
| CONTENT STATEMENT             | 6.2.8.A.2.   | Early Civilizations and the Emergence of Pastoral Peoples: Early River Valley Civilizations - Early river valley civilizations (e.g., Mesopotamia, Egypt, Indus River [modern Pakistan and northwestern India], and, later, Yellow River Valley in China) developed due to favorable geographic conditions. They created centralized systems of government and advanced societies.  |
| CUMULATIVE PROGRESS INDICATOR | 6.2.8.A.2.a. | Explain how/why different early river valley civilizations developed similar forms of government and legal structures.Social Studies OnlineAncient Egypt - Land of the Pharaohs   |

| CONTENT STATEMENT             | 6.2.8.A.3.   | The Classical Civilizations of the Mediterranean World, India, and China - Classical civilizations (i.e., Greece, Rome, India and China) developed and expanded into empires of unprecedented size and diversity by creating centralized governments and promoting commerce, a common culture, and social values. Cultural exchange and diffusion dramatically increased, and enduring world religions emerged, during the era of classical civilizations. Classical civilizations declined as a result of internal weaknesses and external invasions, but they left lasting legacies for future civilizations. |
