STANDARD		Kansas History, Government, and Social Studies Standards
BENCHMARK	1	Choices have consequences.
INDICATOR / PROFICIENCY LEVEL		History, government, economics, and geography are affected by human choice. Choices made by individuals and groups have consequences, and the desirability of the choices are dependent on the perceived positive and negative consequences. Often choices are built and dependent upon earlier choices and consequences. The following are aspects of choices and consequences:

INDICATOR Human choices cause change dependent upon conditions which the decision maker may not be able to control or anticipate.

BENCHMARK	3	Societies are shaped by the identities, beliefs, and practices of individuals and groups.
INDICATOR / PROFICIENCY LEVEL		People live in communities comprised and shaped by various identities, beliefs, and practices of both individuals and groups. Within communities these differing identities, beliefs, and practices require change. The diversity of a community is not always represented/reflected by the majority. The following are aspects of identities, beliefs, and practices:

BENCHMARK	4	Societies experience continuity and change over time.

INDICATOR / PROFICIENCY LEVEL		People and communities have aspects of continuity but experience some degree of change over time. Continuity refers to a society's ability to hold on to what is important, to remain stable, anchored. Change refers to a society's ability to adapt and make the adjustments necessary to protect and advance the society. The following are aspects of continuity and change:
-------------------------------	--	--

INDICATOR Change is generally continuous, not simply discrete events happening at their own pace, and are often determined by “turning or tipping” points.
